

The Learning Module

5.7 Publishing a Learning Module

The screenshot displays the Scholar interface for the 'LDL Learning Modules' community. The top navigation bar includes 'Notifications 15', 'Messages 1', 'Library', 'Logged In as William Cope', 'Help', and 'Cart'. The main navigation bar features 'Scholar', 'Community', 'Creator', 'Publisher', 'Analytics', and 'Bookstore'. The central content area is titled 'LDL Learning Modules's Scholar Publications' and lists several publications: 'Anatolia' (Published by CI 560 FA15 on December 24, 2015), 'French Reflexive Verbs Unit with Storybook Project' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016), 'High School Journalism 1—News Writing Module' (Published by CI 560 FA15 on December 30, 2015), 'Learn to Listen' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016), 'Embracing Creativity' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016), 'The Pythagorean Theorem' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016), 'Filmmaking 101' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016), 'Exploring a New Frontier: Digital Field Trips' (Published by CI 560 FA15 on December 24, 2015), and 'Information Literacy' (Published by EPSY 556 FA15 on January 01, 2016). A sidebar on the left shows 'LDL Learning Modules' with a photo of a classroom, 'Learning modules created by participants in the Learning Design and Leadership program in the College of Education, University of Illinois', 'COMMUNITY ADMINS (2)', 'MEMBERS (19)', and 'INTERESTS'. A right sidebar shows 'Recent Activity' with a list of users who joined the community, 'PUBLICATIONS (10)', and 'SHARES'.

5.7.1: Admins can publish Learning Modules (either by direct publication or after peer review) to teachers' personal profile pages in Scholar, and community pages—for instance the curriculum resource community for a disciplinary area, or for a whole school.

- To find out how to start and manage a community, see the Community section of the Scholar tutorials.
- To find out how to publish a work, see the Publisher section of Scholar tutorials.

As a Learning Module Creator refines and develops their already-published Learning Module, they can request their admin to republish a newer version.
